STUDY INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

AT UDLAP

As a graduate from the Bachelor of International Relations you will be able to analyze, apply, and evaluate diverse international relations and globalization theories; and to use theoretical, methodological, practical, and technical fundamentals of this area to encourage interdisciplinary dialog, interpret the environment, and provide innovative proposals of public policy before complex conflicts and global, national, and local problems in the private and public sector, as well as in organizations and international agencies.

Once you have finished your study program, you will have a bachelor's degree in addition to a licenciatura degree. Therefore, your studies will be recognized worldwide.

UDLAP ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The prestige of our faculty is backed by their extensive teaching experience. 99% of our full-time professors have a graduate degree and one in three is a member of the National System for Researchers (Sistema Nacional de Investigadores - SNI). Given the faculty's experience and their academic quality, they will be able to guide you in finding new ways to express yourself and be critical, innovative, and creative.

UDLAP is accredited at a national and international level by the Mexican Federation of Private Institutions of Higher Education (Federación de Instituciones Mexicanas Particulares de Educación Superior - FIMPES) and, since 1959, by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC). The accreditation agency Quacquarelli Symonds (QS) awarded 5 global stars to our university, making it the first one-campus university in Latin America to achieve this recognition. UDLAP earned 5 stars in the teaching, alumni employability, internationalization, inclusiveness, and art and culture categories; this means that we offer the highest standards of academic quality and educational services when compared to the best universities in Mexico and the world.
